Free CPD Opportunity for Coventry Teachers, Autumn 2017

How to Start a Heritage Study of Historic Coventry and your School's Locality

Wednesday, 29th November 2017 9.00am – 4.00pm, Coventry Prioory Visitor Centre

To support the Coventry Heritage Action Zone, local teachers are invited to a Full Day's Training on how to plan and start a cross-curricular heritage study, to be provided by Martin Phillips of Historic England, in collaboration with Coventry Prioory Visitor Centre, Medieval Coventry, and Coventry Cathedral. The Training day will be most relevant to primary school teachers and KS3 Humanities teachers. The day will include:

- Heritage Walk in Medieval Coventry
- How to use Historical Maps and Aerial Photos in the Classroom
- Using Historical Directories and Census Data to support a Local Study
- Overview of Key Themes in Coventry's rich & varied history
- Curriculum Models, Planning and Examples from other Heritage Schools
- Overview of Support & Opportunities for Schools provided by Heritage Partners in Coventry
- Participants will receive a free map pack and a digital set of resources

Lunch will be provided. There is no cost to schools. 15 places are available for this training event.
